OUR JOB IS FIRST TO UNDERSTAND YOURS

We understand your specific requirements so we can find the best solutions. When you choose Air France-KLM Cargo and Martinair Cargo as your partner, you are not just choosing an airfreight company. You are also making the most of the industrial expertise of our staff. They understand the specific requirements involved in transporting anything from high tech, industrial equipment, pharmaceuticals, fashion and automotive, to perishables, valuables, mail and live animals. Furthermore, thanks to our 160 offices across 5 continents, our representatives are able to understand and to respect the cultural and linguistic aspects of your business. No matter what you need to transport, we have a team with the capacity to find the right solution to fit your transportation needs.
