

Invitation

First Workshop of the Network for the Economic Analysis of Terrorism (NEAT):

“What Do We Know and What Should We Know?”

This network connects a group of leading European economists working on terrorism and security. The network advances our understanding of the links between security and economics and thus lays the economic foundations for the development of a European security policy. The topics of the first workshop will include: an overview of what is known on this topic, what the gaps in knowledge are, and what the best way of moving forward is.

Date: Tuesday, 22 April 2008

Time: 9:00-17:30

Location: DIW Berlin (German Institute for Economic Research) Mohrenstraße 58, 10117 Berlin (Map and directions: http://www.diw.de/english/how\_to\_find\_us/32434.html)
