THE CONSERVATION REGISTER

The Conservation Register holds detailed information on conservation-restoration businesses in the UK and Ireland. Businesses meet specified criteria which include professional accreditation and the provision of examples of previous work for satisfied clients. Whether you are a private owner or work in the heritage sector, you can use the website or telephone enquiry service to find conservators by type of object and geographical location:

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MEMORIAL MASONS (NAMM)

The National Association of Memorial Masons website lists the names of all its members across the UK and Ireland. Members, individuals or organisations, must operate within the Association's Codes of Ethics, Business Practice and Working Practice. You can search for a memorial mason by carrying out a region or county search.
