Internet Marketing

Before I started at Hove College I had studied English in many different colleges in Brighton. I came across Hove College by chance, I say 'by chance' because I really think Hove College is one of the UK's best-kept secrets – it's not a college that advertises widely. For someone like me who sought an excellent education in a warm atmosphere, it was a real find.

At the beginning of my Internet Marketing programme I wasn't sure whether I was doing the right thing. As time progressed I quickly realised that my reservations were misplaced and came around to thinking that this was a great decision for my career and academic development.

Basically, I strongly believe that Hove College is one of the best colleges in Brighton, perhaps in England.

All the certificates that I gained from Hove College and The London Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Marketing, e-Commerce and Internet Marketing will help me a great deal when I return to Turkey.

Finally, I would say that the people who work for the college are some of the friendliest, most approachable teachers I have ever met – that's why I am happy that I decided to study at Hove College.
